WHEN December 17th – January 24
Wednesday December 17, 2008 from 7:00- 10:00PM - Opening reception

Anonymous Gallery is proud to combine three generations of prolific artists whose work has been influenced by, or has directly influenced popular culture, design, and the urban environment. The Piece Process will unite relevant artists with their contemporary counterparts through artwork that serves as a reference or an impetus to something larger or more complete. Anonymous Gallery will exhibit unique pieces of art in the form of sketchbook drawings and original works on paper or found objects from over 30 established and emerging artists exhibiting in New York. The exhibition intends to create discourse in regard to artists who have not only influenced one another, but society through their use of iconography, collage, pen, paint, and print.

In conjunction with the exhibition, Anonymous Gallery, will also be hosting weekly workshops for children. Artists Todd James, Leon Reid, Michael De Feo, Maya Hayuk, Ellis Gallagher, among others, will teach the workshops. In the spirit of giving, portions of the proceeds raised will go to benefit Public Art for Public Schools <http://schools.nyc.gov/Offices/SCA/Programs/PAPS/default.htm>. For additional information, workshop schedules, or to make a reservation, please contact - events@anonymousgallery.com

Special Thanks to John and Kristine Woodward, Woodward Gallery for their significant support for the exhibition.

ABOUT ANONYMOUS GALLERY: <http://www.anonymousgallery.com/>

Anonymous Gallery supports and exhibits some of today's most exciting contemporary artists who have influenced popular culture, graphic design, fashion and the urban environment. In addition to Anonymous Gallery's exhibitions, the gallery collaborates to produce ambitious and complex offsite projects in New York City, as well as other international cities. Off-site events and projects correlate with and add value to gallery exhibitions by way of further examining the environments and backgrounds in which the artists create.

The gallery space also creates a social environment that provides entertainment, workshops, lectures, and public awareness projects.
